

Telephone Privacy Adaptor

This unit is designed to prevent eaves dropping or dialling across calls when an extension line is fitted. A switching device is incorporated in the adaptor together with LED indicators. When one of the telephones is in use, the unit blocks interference and eaves dropping from the other telephone. This is indicated through the LED.

- Simple 'plug in' installation
- Suitable for use where extension lines are fitted

415907.410784

Order Code	Price Each
133-5089	