- Technical drawing of a mechanical assembly. A component labeled 'MX-PT 54932' is shown being inserted into a housing. The drawing includes a cross-section view of the assembly, showing the internal components and the housing. The component is a long, cylindrical part with a flange at one end. The housing is a complex, multi-part assembly with various internal features and a large circular opening. The drawing is a black and white line drawing with hatching used to indicate different materials or sections.
